

“Channel your audience with .TV”

Messaging (Business audience)

If you've got engaging, captivating content, then channel your audience with .TV.

The Natural Extension of TV onto the Internet

The Internet is changing. Content is no longer static. Audiences expect to be engaged and involved and your site needs to stand out from the crowd. So, don't settle for the same ol' same ol'. A .TV extension is more descriptive, focused, and memorable (and you're more likely to get the exact name you want).

.TV Screams Rich Media

Give your audience what they expect. With a .TV extension you're already telling your audience that a great experience awaits – even before they get there. .TV let's your audience know you're the place for engaging, compelling content.

With a .TV extension, you can channel your audience where you want them. Don't miss out. Make it easy for your audience to remember your site. Channel your audience with .TV today.
